Charter Set Until Cuban Ballot Held

Urrutia Cabinet Holds Session On New Constitution

By LARRY ALLEN

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Cuba's provisional government polished up a new interim constitution today as the work of weeding out remnants of Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship went forward.

The Cabinet met far into the night working on a new fundamental law to replace the constitution of 1940 until the holding of free elections.

It was not immediately learned how the charter would differ from the old one, which was adopted during Batista's first period of power. Presumably the interim constitution will be replaced after a new Congress is elected.

Officials Dismissed
Provisional President Manuel Urrutia Tuesday dismissed all provincial governors, mayors and councilmen in the island's six provinces. Presumably a new list of civilian appointees to replace them was ready, although it was not announced immediately.

The new cabinet was reported preparing a decree abolishing all political parties and taking away the political rights of all candidates in the 1954 and 1958 elections held by Batista. This would bar even the opposition candidates tolerated by Batista from the elections which Urrutia has promised to hold in 18 to 24 months.

One leading politician apparently exempt from the political ban would be former President Carlos Prío Socarrás, whom Batista overthrew in a coup in 1952. Prío fled to Miami and did not return until the victory last week of Fidel Castro's rebellion.

Informal sources said other cabinet decrees would freeze the private bank accounts of all Batista officials and stop payment on all checks outstanding against the treasury. It was problematical, however, how much this could recover for the government since the custom for Cubans profiting most from the government has been to bank in the United States or Europe.

Will Rule By Decree
Earlier Tuesday Urrutia's cabinet dissolved congress, suspended the criminal courts and announced it would rule by decree until elections are held. Revolutionary courts reportedly will be set up to try Batista, now an exile in the Dominican Republic, and other officials of his regime who may be charged.

Castro supporters in Havana impatiently awaited the arrival of their bearded chief, who continued his slow triumphal march from the eastern end of the island, stopping at every town and hamlet to address cheering throngs.

Castro had been expected in the capital this afternoon, but it appeared now he might not arrive until Thursday.

Salk Says Polio Virus Eliminated By Using Vaccine
ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Salk anti-polio vaccine has eliminated completely one of the three types of polio virus among the vaccinated persons according to Dr. Jonas Salk, the University of Pittsburgh physician-scientist who developed the vaccine.

The three types are known as I, II and III. In the before-vaccine days, Type I appeared on an average of eight times in 10 cases; types II and III only once each in 10. Type II has been eliminated among those vaccinated, he said.

Satellite To Be Launched From West Coast AF Base
LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 1,300-pound satellite — the first ever to be launched on the West Coast — is on its pad at Vandenberg Air Force Base.

Some time within the next few days, Project Discoverer will be under way, headed for a Pole-to-Pole orbit.

Peiping Red Guns Batter Chiang Isles

TAIPEI (AP) — The Chinese Communists pounded the Quemoy islands today with their heaviest fire in two months.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry reported more than 12,000 Red shells landed on the offshore islands between 2 and 4 p.m. and said the bombardment was continuing without a lull in intensity.

The Ministry said the Nationalist guns fired back vigorously, but the volume of counterfire was not announced.

It was the heaviest Communist firing since Nov. 3, when 39,162 shells were fired during an 18-hour period. And the rate of fire this afternoon virtually equaled the heaviest shelling on Nov. 3, some 36,000 shells in 6 hours.

The heavy Communist bombardment was expected. The Reds had charged the Nationalists with shelling a commune nursery on the mainland Saturday and threatened a severe attack in reprisal. The Nationalists denounced the charge as a barefaced lie and said the Communists had made it as a pretext for resuming intensive shelling of Quemoy.

Six Men Die In Car Crash

KENTON, Ohio (AP) — Six Tennessee men were killed early today in the head-on collision of their auto and a gasoline tank truck on U.S. 68, about two miles north of here.

The highway patrol and funeral homes where the bodies were taken said the victims had been identified tentatively as residents of Cleveland, Tenn., and vicinity.

The identifications were listed as:
Floyd Clark, 22; Herbert Goings, 41; Richard Kelly, 28; Horace Boyd, 24; Robert D. Lee, 31; and John B. Gibson, 32.

Wheat Prices Firm
CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat was firm, but other grains and soybean futures were mostly irregular at the opening of the Board of Trade today.

Rain Or Snow Due For Area

BALTIMORE (AP) — Five-day forecast: Rain or snow Thursday, with rain likely again about Monday. Precipitation will average about one-fourth of an inch or less. Slowly rising trend in temperatures through Friday, but lowering Saturday and then warmer Sunday and Monday. Temperatures will average near normal. Normal highs range from the upper 30s in the mountains to the low to mid 40s in the east. Lows vary from the upper teens in the mountains to the mid 20s to around 30 in the east.

Rockefeller Asserts Tax Hike Needed

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller launched his administration today by telling New Yorkers they must pay millions more in state taxes.

The new Republican governor declared in his first annual message to the Legislature that the state's fiscal affairs had fallen into "a serious condition of deterioration" under Democrat Averell Harriman.

"Much as we deplore the facts," he said, "conditions require additional tax revenues now."

Rockefeller said he was struggling with a deficit of "at least 230 million dollars" in the new budget.

He said he would spell out his tax proposals in the budget message, which he must submit to the GOP-controlled Senate and Assembly by Feb. 1.

The governor's 7,000-word message hewed strictly to state problems, unlike his inaugural message, which carried strong international overtones and prompted new speculation on Rockefeller's White House potential.

Gestapo Officer Dies
HAMBURG, Germany (UPI) — Former Gestapo Col. Kurt Engels, 43, has died in Hamburg prison cell while awaiting prosecution for the murder and mass deportation of Polish Jews during World War II, police disclosed today.

Debre Slated As deGaulle's New Premier

PARIS (AP) — Michel Debre is considered certain to be named French premier after Gen. Charles de Gaulle becomes president of the Fifth Republic Thursday.

De Gaulle is expected to name Debre shortly after he takes over from President Rene Coty. A cabinet of about 20 ministers will be named soon thereafter.

Debre, 46, has been justice minister in the cabinet which De Gaulle has headed as premier with special powers since last June 1.

He is expected to keep most of the key ministers from De Gaulle's Cabinet, many of them nonpolitical technicians. He will ignore the political composition of the National Assembly by naming only about five ministers from the new Gaullist party, the Union for a New Republic, which claims an Assembly majority.

Former Premier Antoine Pinay, De Gaulle's finance minister, is expected to move up to a minister of state job with coordinating control of all financial and economic affairs.

Maurice Couve de Murville, 55-year-old professional diplomat, probably will remain as foreign minister.

Others expected to stay in the cabinet are former Premier Pierre Pflimlin, as minister of state coordinating matters concerning France's overseas community; Andre Malraux, minister of state overseeing cultural affairs; and Pierre Guillaumat, a professional civil servant, as army minister.

Order Restored In Congo Areas

BRUSSELS (AP) — Order has been restored in most of Leopoldville after riots that killed at least 35 Africans and severely injured 100 more, reports from the capital of the Belgian Congo said today.

Police and troops remained on the alert with the African section of the city cordoned off.

Clashes between Africans and police began Sunday after an African political meeting at which future independence of the Congo was discussed.

Mikoyan Arrives In Cleveland, Will Be Cyrus Eaton's Guest

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Anastas I. Mikoyan, No. 2 man of the Kremlin, arrived in Cleveland today to start a 13-day coast-to-coast tour. He hustled off a plane and down a double line of police. Several hundred picketing nationality groups were blocked back by ropes.

Mikoyan tipped his hat as he got off a Capital Airlines plane about five minutes after it arrived at 10:10 a.m. Then he hurried inside the concourse gates to hold a brief news conference before leaving the airport.

Mrs. Eaton Speaks Russian
Cyrus Eaton, Cleveland industrialist, and his wife greeted Mikoyan, Mrs. Eaton speaking in Russian.

Mikoyan told her it was very good to speak Russian with her, and solicitedly advised the 75-year-old Eaton, who will be his host here, that he should wear a hat on his white-haired head, lest he catch cold.

Several hundred Iron Curtain country nationality groups had gathered at the airport. They carried such signs as "Blackmail," "Mikoyan, your hands are red with Russian blood."

During the flight he sat beside Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov, who read him news from New York and Washington newspapers.

A dimpled airline stewardess, Miss Rita Sylvester, 23, of West Warwick, R. I., served the 63-year-old Mikoyan a breakfast of scrambled eggs and bacon, and he told her it was very good.

Mikoyan inspected the cockpit of the Vickers Viscount and talked with the pilot, George Donnan, 34, of Falls Church, Va., a 12-year airline veteran; and copilot Bill Patchen of Arlington, Va.

He told them one of his brothers was an airplane engineer. That was Arlen Mikoyan, codesigner of the MIG series of fighters. He said also that he had one pilot son killed in the war and another son who is still a pilot.

Will Go To Detroit
After an overnight stay here as the guest of millionaire Eaton, Mikoyan will go on to Detroit and the West Coast before returning to Washington Jan. 19 for talks with President Eisenhower.

Stalin Blamed For Cold War, Not Churchill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States told the Soviet Union and the world today that Joseph Stalin, not Winston Churchill, started the cold war.

It said the Soviet Union, not the Western powers, wrecked cooperation in Germany at the end of World War II.

In a 53-page booklet on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's drive to oust the Western powers from Berlin, the United States accused the Soviet government of rewriting and distorting the history of the last quarter of a century in an effort to build a case for the Khrushchev campaign.

Well Digger Saved, Claws His Way Out

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (UPI) — A 45-year-old well-digger trapped in a cave-in for nearly 13 hours clawed his way free from a steel and sand prison today with the help of a winch.

Leslie Stafford Jr., once given up for dead, had been trapped at the 20-foot level of a narrow four-foot diameter sump hole. A steel strip which pinned his ankle had prevented rescuers from pulling him out after tons of gravel had been removed from atop him following the cave-in at 3:22 p.m. p.s.t. Tuesday.

Cramped conditions and fear of another cave-in had made rescuers virtually stop digging.

Stafford dug with his bare hands for more than eight hours before he was freed and was pulled from the hole at 3:37 a.m. p.s.t.

Violent winds, with gusts up to 75 m.p.h., put below-zero teeth into the bitter bite of subfreezing weather again Tuesday as the continued to cause widespread damage.

Today, the Weather Bureau in Washington said, winds would diminish to 20 to 30 m.p.h. along the northern portion of the coast, while blowing, relatively light in the southern section. Rising temperatures may reach a high of 25 to 30 degrees in some areas.

Winds whistled through most of the Northeast at a steady 40 m.p.h. The Weather Bureau said winds of that speed in five-degree temperatures created the effect of 30-below cold in a light wind.

Temperatures sank below zero in points from New York to Maine and were below freezing all the way to northern Florida. The mercury dropped to 63 during the night in Miami.

Impatient Thieves Take Lights, Bushes
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The new North Beach Public Library won't be opened until Feb. 5, but already three outdoor lights and some of its shrubbery have been stolen.

"Did you ever put up that sign that defacing public property is illegal?" Library Commissioner J. Max Moore asked at a meeting Tuesday.

"They'd steal the sign," said Commissioner S. Lee Vevuris.

Congress Opening Marked By Battle In Ranks Of GOP

WASHINGTON (AP) — The new 86th Congress convened today already torn by wrangling over Republican leadership posts and the ground rules for a looming new battle on civil rights.

The bang of gavels in Senate and House chambers at noon (EST) launched the session before packed galleries gay with the bright dresses of admiring women folk of the members.

But beneath the normal hearts and flowers atmosphere, collective blood pressures were seldom higher for an opening session.

Rebellion Put Down
Senate Republicans had just come from a party caucus where the old guard put down an insurgent rebellion and named Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, a 1952 supporter of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, as party floor leader.

House Republicans were split right down the middle as the result of a scrap Tuesday that saw Rep. Joseph W. Martin (Mass.) ousted as party leader after 20 years at the helm. Named to replace him was Rep. Charles A. Halleck (Ind.).

And senators of both parties were taking sides for a possibly prolonged battle over that body's rules. The issue: whether to make it easier to cut off filibusters — the endless debate that backers of more federal protection for Negro voting rights have contended is the main weapon used to defeat such legislation.

Only House Democrats, tightly under control of Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), were without any raging feuds for the moment.

Rayburn, who has served as speaker longer than any other man, was chosen again at a party caucus Tuesday. It put him in the presiding chair of the House for a ninth two-year term.

Actually, the party only nominated. But the overwhelming strength of the Democrats made today's election by the House itself only a formality.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas was re-elected Senate Democratic leader at a party meeting just before the Senate convened. He has held the post since 1955.

Johnson described the conference as highly harmonious with no discussion of such matters as Senate rules on which the Democrats are divided.

Sen. Cooper Defeated
Dirksen won the Senate GOP leadership over Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky by a 20-14 vote with all 34 Republican senators participating.

By a similar 20-14 margin Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California was chosen whip or assistant floor leader.

Mother Of Kidnaped Infant Returns To Brooklyn Home

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Frances Chionchio, 26, is home from the maternity ward — away from the sight of new mothers with crying babies. Her own infant daughter is still missing.

Mrs. Chionchio returned Tuesday to her Brooklyn home from St. Peter's Hospital, where her child was kidnaped from a nursery Friday night, only 2 1/2 hours after birth.

The woman's uncle, Dr. John Mollica, who delivered the baby, said he had planned to discharge her today or Thursday, but after seeing her Tuesday decided she should leave at once.

"I think she would be better off mentally if she were away from the atmosphere of seeing other new mothers and crying infants," Mollica said.

Mrs. Chionchio has one other daughter, Geradette, 1. Her husband, Frank, 28, an attorney for the Port of New York Authority, was with her when she left the hospital weeping.

A widespread search continued for a heavy-set blacked blonde, between 30 and 35, believed to be the kidnaper. Police think she is a frustrated mother.

Democrats Will Honor Truman

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former officials said it probably would President Harry S. Truman has taken the form of a closed circuit broadcast to make his 75th birthday, telecast over a theater or hotel ballroom network.

"It would be a tribute to Mr. Truman with the former president participating," Dep. Chairman said Tuesday.

Details of the program remain to be worked out, but committee Sam Brightman said.

Akron Man Was Jailed In Havana For Swindle

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — The U.S. Embassy said Tuesday an Akron, Ohio, man who claimed he and two companions were neglected by U.S. authorities in a Havana prison, had been jailed here on a swindling charge.

An embassy statement said the two companions had been in prison on charges of robbing, beating and kidnapping an elderly club owner in Havana.

The three are Jonathan J. Graham Jr., 30, Akron, Dean Leon Gleaves, 23, Portland, Ore., and Edward W. Kechn, 20, Pontiac, Mich.

Graham, now at his home in Akron, said all three were beaten and mistreated by Batista prison guards and that the U.S. Embassy did not help them. He said all three were thrown in prison without being informed of the charges against them.

The embassy said the three were visited by an embassy official at least once a week. Cigarettes and magazines were furnished them.

"When the prisons were emptied in the first hours of the revolution in Havana," the embassy statement said, "these men managed to escape and evidently made their way to the United States ahead of women and children tourists who were legitimately in the country."

The embassy said Graham was held on a swindling charge. The embassy was informed that Chicago authorities had a warrant for Graham's arrest and that Miami authorities also wanted him.

The embassy said Gleaves and Kechn were arrested Aug. 8 and were identified as the men who had kidnapped and robbed Mario Merendi, an American resident of Havana who runs the American club.

Khrushchev

In the meantime, Secretary of State Dulles and other top American officials collected for close scrutiny all the demands, promises, assurances and hints the old Bolshevik scattered about the nations capital.

It was their impression that Mikoyan was here, not on vacation, as he insists, but to plug the line: Make me an offer.

Although he left a lot of things fuzzy, they said, he so far has come up with no genuine Soviet concession on the tension-packed Berlin situation. Rather, any change appeared to be one of tone instead of substance, leaving the door open to possible concessions only after some sort of U.S. counter-proposal.

After conferring for more than two hours with Vice President Nixon at the Capitol Tuesday, Mikoyan was asked by newsmen whether the Soviet Union had altered its Berlin policy in any way.

"Why change it?" he fired back. "One does not change a good position."

'Right Bloc'

Kuchel, who won over Sen. Karl Mundt of South Dakota, was the candidate for a group of senators who opposed election of Dirksen as leader.

On the other side of the political fence, Democratic Leader Johnson was reported ready to take the play away from a bipartisan group of civil rights advocates who want a rules change to make it easier to kill off filibusters.

In the last session of Congress, Johnson was one of the sponsors of a resolution that would provide that two-thirds of those voting could end debate. The present rule requires the affirmative votes of 66 senators to accomplish this.

Fisher 'Sorry' He's Losing TV Show March 17

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "I don't know if my relations with Liz had anything to do with losing the show. I didn't want to do this many shows this year, anyway."

"I'm only sorry that I'm cut off in the middle of the season."

This was Eddie Fisher's comment Tuesday after it became known his television show is being dropped March 17 because his tobacco firm sponsor didn't pick up the option.

Liz is Elizabeth Taylor, with whom the singer has been keeping company since his split with Debbie Reynolds who had sued him for divorce.

Network sources say the show is being dropped due to low ratings, rather than publicity attending the Taylor-Fisher-Reynolds triangle.

George Gobel, whose show alternates with Fisher's, stays on the air. But he'll have but a half-hour instead of an hour.

Order Autopsy On Victim Of House Blaze

Indiantown Resident
Found By Firemen
Seated In Chair

By The Associated Press
An autopsy has been ordered to find out what caused Calvin Milligan's death yesterday. His body was found in his burning home at Indiantown in Dorchester County.

Other Maryland fires left a family of 13 homeless in Queen Anne's County, damaged four Baltimore rowhouses and forced a mother and two children to flee a St. Marys County blaze.

Two of the 45-year-old Milligan's daughters returned home from school to find their home ablaze. Firemen later found the father's body in a chair.

Dr. John Mace, deputy county medical examiner, pronounced Milligan dead from unknown causes and ordered the autopsy.

The daughters, Shirley, 17, and Barbara, 8, were not injured. Cause of the fire was not immediately known.

The 13 members of Mrs. Webster Cheers' family were taken in by neighbors last night after a fire destroyed their eight-room home on the Albert Hicks farm near Browns Corner about five miles north of Centerville.

One fireman, John Gannon, of Centerville, was treated for hand burns.

Mrs. Cheers and a 13-month-old granddaughter were the only ones in the two-story frame house at the time. Seven other children were at school.

Firemen said the flames, whipped up by strong winds, destroyed the house in 10 minutes. They were forced to haul water to the scene and concentrated on saving other structures, including a barn housing 35 cattle.

Seventeen pieces of fire equipment were used to put out a three-alarm fire which ruined four rowhouses in Baltimore last night.

A resident of the neighborhood said he heard a loud explosion shortly before the blaze was discovered.

One fireman slipped and injured himself on ice which covered the street in front of the burning rowhouses. He was taken to a hospital with a head injury.

The St. Marys County fire occurred five miles south of Lexington Park. Mrs. Evan Perisho and her two children were led to safety by Deputy Sheriff George Sanger, who saw smoke coming from the house as he drove along Maryland 235.

The fire was believed to have started from an overheated furnace. Damage was extensive.

Fire Damages Local Building

Considerable damage was caused to a basement apartment and first floor of an apartment at 814 Waverly Terrace yesterday afternoon.

East Side firemen answered the call at 2:59 p. m., and minutes later called on firemen of Central station for assistance.

The cause of the fire was not determined, firemen said, although it apparently broke out in the basement apartment occupied by Earl Orndorff and ate its way through a partition to the first floor apartment occupied by Carl E. Dolly.

The first floor apartment was damaged considerably by water. Portions of the wall and flooring of the apartments had to be chipped by the firemen.

East Side firemen had two other calls yesterday. At 2:16 p. m. they were called to 811 Edgewood Drive, when they extinguished a brush fire.

About 12:41 a. m. yesterday they were called to 308 Pulaski Street where the furnace apparently overheated.

PTA Will Meet

Wiley Ford PTA will meet tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. at the school. Harry Stegmaier, Cumberland attorney, will speak on "The Child with an Allowance." An executive meeting will be held at 7 p. m., and teachers will be in their rooms at the same time to meet parents.

New Congressmen Take Office Oath

By FRANK E. TAYLOR

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maryland's three new representatives take the oath of office today to give the state an all-Democratic lineup in the House.

The three—Thomas F. Johnson of Berlin, Daniel B. Brewster of Glyndon, and John R. Foley of Kensington—said they expect to start work immediately on projects of Maryland interest.

These include parks, aid for the poultry industry, and defense contracts.

Foley said he plans to concentrate at the beginning of the new session on legislation to provide a Chesapeake and Ohio Canal historical park and to expand the land area for Antietam Battlefield Park near Sharpsburg.

Brewster said he will seek a guarantee of further allocations of federal contracts to Maryland plants and to prevent any repetition of having such defense work withdrawn from the state.

Poultry raising was described by Johnson as a major concern for his district. He said he would seek greater stability for this industry.

Johnson said he will continue to cooperate with Virginians in a fight against closing the Navy Air Station at Chincoteague, Va.

Maryland's Sens. John Marshall Butler and J. Glenn Beall, Republicans, are lined up also with Vir-gians in the effort to keep the Eastern Shore station open.

Butler said he will use the occasion of a conference of Virginia and Maryland Congressmen with Secretary of Navy Gates to go into other phases of naval operations in Maryland.

These include, he said, the naval facilities at Indian Head, maintenance of the installation at Bainbridge, and "adequate contracts to the Glenn L. Martin Co. at Middle River and the Fairchild Aircraft Co. to compensate for cancellations."

IGY Studies Give Hint On Our Weather

Sun Flares, Hail Of Meteors May Cause Changes

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The trouble with our weather could be that it behaves too much like people. Little things often make human blow their stacks.

And suspicions are mounting that little things may set off vast storms, droughts, floods, or changes in our climate.

The triggers could be flares on the sun, a hail of meteors, strange kinds of radiation, or other events. Discovery of such triggers—if they exist—could well be one of the fantastic rewards from the worldwide studies of the International Geophysical Year.

The earth has been wheeling around for millions of years. By this time, you might expect it to have worn down or become pretty stable weatherwise, says John Townsend of the National Aeronautical and Space Agency.

Sun Constant

Our sun is very constant and steady in its output of heat and visible light.

But the sun does vary in its outbursts of X-rays and radiations from flares. Could these be triggers for mechanisms high in the atmosphere, which in turn affect surface weather?

Astronomer Walter Orr Roberts of Boulder, Colo., is checking a theory that great electrical "winds" from solar flares influence a vital weather factory in Alaska.

Some flares could deepen weather troughs or lows so they sweep farther south than usual, bringing rain or snow to Texas rather than the Dakotas. Absence of flares—as the sun now is quieting down in its cycle—could mean severe droughts in the U.S. Southwest in 10 years or so.

Whatever the merit of such ideas, IGY is certain to produce far keener and more basic understanding of the why and how of our weather. That means better forecasts, perhaps methods of eventual weather control.

Scientists discovered Antarctica contains nearly half again as much ice as first suspected—ice averages about 1½ miles thick over the region's six million square miles.

Were it all suddenly to melt, seas would rise 300 feet or more, in disastrous floods.

Soviet weathermen at a station in the Antarctic highlands measured a record low temperature of 124 degrees below zero. But temperatures on any given day can vary 80 to 90 degrees between South Pole and coastal stations—a range as great as that between Miami and Bismarck, N.D.

Signs were found that Antarctica is warming up, at least in places. Little America is about five degrees warmer now on the average than in 1912, reports Dr. Harry Wexler of the U.S. Weather Bureau.

Arctic studies find there is less ice in that region than half a century ago, but that the arctic is being bathed with far more snow than Antarctica now.

Ocean currents shuttle vast amounts of the earth's heat from place to place.

Counter-Currents

Seagoing scientists discovered three vital counter-currents flowing deep under the Gulf Stream, under the Pacific Equatorial Current, and another north of the Equator. They influence not only weather, but the precious marine life reserves of the oceans.

Floating on a flimsy ice floe and ice island, daring scientists discovered a new mountain range rising from the Arctic Ocean floor, a high plateau with steep drops, and mountain peaks as jagged as the Rockies, took photographs of puzzling tracks made on the ocean bottom by some strange sea life.

Sea topography can channel currents, and in the arctic—where the Russians have long concentrated scientific studies—could also be essential for future submarine voyages under the ice cover.

And IGY brought a fabulous prospector's strike.

In the southeast Pacific, oceanographers discovered a vast area of sea bottom is covered with a gludge of manganese, iron, cobalt and copper—worth perhaps half a million dollars per square mile. It appears economically feasible to bring it up.

Tomorrow: Earth's medical checkup.

Frederick County State's Attorney Indicted

BALTIMORE (AP) — State's Attorney Edwin F. Nikirk of Frederick County was indicted by a federal grand jury yesterday on a charge of attempting to evade more than $10,000 in income taxes. Nikirk, at Frederick, said the government already had received money from him to pay the deficiency plus interest and penalties.

The 42-year-old father of two sons and former chairman of the county Democratic committee, was sworn in last Monday for a four-year term. He previously had served as State's attorney from 1943 to 1950.

The indictment charges he filed false joint returns for 1952-54, when he was in private law practice. The three-count indictment charged he stated his total net income was $20,844 when it was $56,143.

The indictment said he declared his income taxes for the period to be $3,532 when they should have been $13,956.

Underwood said "he's innocent until proven guilty."

Nikirk said "naturally, I am startled to say the least. However, after being under investigation for a period extending into four years, I can be properly resolved."

OUR COUNTRY
The union of hearts, the union of hands and the flag of our Union forever.—Morris.

Red "Moon Shot"

BY SENDING a rocket beyond the earth's gravitational pull and into orbit around the sun, the Soviet Union has shown the world that the race for outer space is a sharpening struggle. The Russians, to be sure, missed their primary goal: which was to put the rocket into a path around the moon. But they fired their shot farther from the earth than any other man-made space object has ever traveled. And they greatly outdistanced America's two tries at the moon. There can be no question that this is another major advance in the conquest of space, and that it is a victory the Russians felt they badly needed. The world has widely hailed America's success in hurling into orbit the huge, talking Atlas missile. More than any other thing we have done in the space field, this persuaded millions abroad that we were abreast of our rugged Communist competitors.

THE "MOON SHOT" coming at this time is an obvious Soviet effort to recapture propaganda advantage. Russia lives by threats. And it cannot make convincing threats without the leverage of solid achievement. In the experts' view, the Soviet long-distance rocket also was timed to coincide with the current U.S. visit of Deputy Soviet Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan. There was no advance disclosure of the nature of his mission. But amid all the speculation, the notion persists that he will talk not only of Russia's effort to get the West out of Berlin, but of its reported desire for a new summit conference. It was abundantly clear to Premier Khrushchev that tough Soviet talk here or anywhere would be discounted so long as the talking Atlas was orbiting unanswered. But a Kremlin that has just beaten gravity with its latest rocket may imagine Mikoyan will get a more respectful hearing.

ACTUALLY BOTH we and the Russians have had for a long time the capacity to destroy each other in nuclear holocaust. Neither our circling Atlas nor Moscow's "moon shot" gives any special additional military strategic edge to either competitor. It does indicate that the striving for that extra advantage is intense. Little more than two weeks elapsed between our latest leap into space and the Russians'. The Russian achievement only underscores that we cannot rest for an instant in this race. We must press on at all levels, from the fundamental education of our youth to the special concentrations that will keep America thrusting successfully toward the outer reaches of space. It would be wonderful if what the Russians have done could be greeted purely as a scientific marvel promising benefit to all mankind. But hostile communism's goals of conquest give all of its triumphs overtones of peril for free men. With those frightening reservations in mind, the world acknowledges another great thrust by adventuring man into the mysteries of the unknown.

Police Grievances

A NEWSPAPER'S random poll among New York policemen showed a general feeling of antagonism toward the international Brotherhood of Teamsters' plan to organize the police force. Teamster President James R. Hoffa appears to be backing away from the plan in the face of city officials' determined opposition, but the poll among police was nevertheless significant for two reasons. In the first place, it showed that the police seem to share a widespread resentment of conditions which might prepare the ground for police unionization if they are not corrected. Almost half of those questioned expressed discontent with the grievance procedure which now permits no appeal from the police commissioner's decisions in disputes about working conditions and other matters. It was felt that an impartial arbiter ought to be empowered to review the commissioner's labor relations rulings. There also was sentiment for having the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association headed by a civilian, who presumably could deal with the commissioner more effectively than a member of the police force could. These attitudes apply specifically to the situation in New York, but they also suggest a general truth. This is that if communities want to avert efforts of the Teamsters or any other union to organize the police force, the best method is to improve conditions that might nudge the police toward unionization.

New Congress May Stir Ike To Action

WASHINGTON — One stark fact lies behind the political struggles which debate in Congress will soon illuminate. It is that the President is the fulcrum of the American system. He is the only point on which the political lever can get direct and immediate purchase. His alone is the touch which can readily turn the country in new directions. He can be stopped but he cannot be started against his will.

PRESIDENT Eisenhower hates to make decisions. It is therefore next to impossible to break new ground now except by the slow process of public education and discussion which will create pressures of a kind the White House cannot resist. Liberal Republican Senators are trying to start that process of education in the oval study of the President himself. In his increasing isolation, the only Republicans Eisenhower sees regularly and talks with, not just to, are the Congressional leaders. The GOP liberals are therefore going for broke on the Senate leadership, and a similar fight is building in the House against the aging and ailing minority leader, Rep. Joe Martin.

THE DEMOCRAT Congress in turn is led by veterans who accept the fact that their heavy majorities can legislate but cannot govern. These men are not of one mind about how they would govern if they could or what the voters meant to say Nov. 4 last. They are agreed in wanting to avoid tactics which would give the impression that they are running the country when in fact they are not and cannot.

The outcome of the 1960 Presidential election will very probably depend on the ability of the Democratic Congress to achieve enough to persuade the voters it could do wonders with a Democratic President and yet not give rise to the idea that it could have done a lot more if it wanted to.

MANEUVERING in prospect for the next two years will be a wonderful story by itself. It is lent added fascination by the new dimension in Albany, New York—Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. Gov. Rockefeller is in a position to cry a plague on both your houses when Washington falters, an advantage denied to his rival, Vice President Nixon.

Noticeably, the Rockefeller inaugural address identified the state with the national interest and bent an informed glance at international affairs. Unquestionably he has the best seat on the sidelines and proposes to make the most of it.

With so many Democratic Senators wanting to be President, no one power struggle there can be more than a skirmish. In contrast, House Democratic liberals have bowed to the unique power and prestige of Speaker Rayburn.

THE SPEAKER refused to discuss enlarging the Rules Committee dominated by a conservative coalition. He said he had long ago agreed with Republican leader Martin to leave an 84 ratio on that committee no matter which party controlled Congress.

He would not support a 21-day rule or similar proposals to break a rules log jam, but instead gave his personal assurance that he would help the liberals pass a reasonably comprehensive domestic program.

They had to be content; the Speaker's influence is decisive with the roughly 30 Democratic moderates who hold the House balance of power. Commented one House liberal: "We have learned to count. For liberals, this is a great achievement."

Whitney Bolton Glancing Sideways

NEW YORK—Among the hazards of being a critic, like walking on wall-to-wall eggs or swimming in a clear, crystal pool of sharks, is having to rely totally on one's own judgment which not only often fails to match all other critical judgments but also involves rowelling of estimable and beautiful people.

Across a length of time, this can lead to fairly wholesale alienations. And, also, it can make all parties or luncheons times of strain and storm. But since whole decades often pass between horsewhippings of critics, we run no real peril of a physical nature.

SOME WEEKS ago, for example, Miss Judith Anderson found herself involved in a lustreless play which also hobbled her extraordinary talents and it became necessary to say so in this way: "Miss Anderson who is beautiful, has small opportunity to . . . We met, a week later, at party and she came over and said: "You said that I was beautiful. I am also an actress." Well, she is, of course, both. Beautiful in a way of being imperious with hauteur, actress in every way there is. The best, the top of the heap, the queen of same in the English language.

AND SO we come to an enchantingly beautiful young lady named Ursula Stevens. Miss Stevens recently made her New York, but not Broadway, debut off-Broadway in a play of olden times called, with suitable reservations for the bluntness of print, "Tis Pity She's A . . ." which a man named John Ford wrote in 1624, or about then.

Its blunt title, more than anything, has kept it from being produced more often, although it also concerns itself with a rare situation between brother and sister. Reviewing this, I implied that Miss Stevens was not exactly fully ready for a role of this stature, being at this moment both too young and too inexperienced. I listened hard, but heard no thunder roll and arrived at the conclusion that Miss Stevens, in private life, was also a lady.

CIRCUMSTANCE placed us both in Zucca's comely restaurant at lunch time the other day and we fell to talking through the helpful offices of her director, Eugene Van Groma. If Miss Stevens felt any bundled resentment, she failed to show it in any way and was at all moments a creature of charm and poise. It developed that she comes from a doctoring family which, on the distaff side did own to previous performers, one indeed

A Rock Goes Into The Pond

WASHINGTON—The fact that Governor Nelson Rockefeller of New York has now let the other shoe drop and all but openly announced his candidacy for the 1960 Republican Presidential nomination is only the surface of this political story.

The joke in both parties here is that the new Governor's inaugural address at Albany has almost ruined the one he intends to make in Washington as President in 1961. It is too bad, the irreverent politicians say, that he has used up so many of his good lines ahead of time.

But the cream of the jest—though it has a certain sour taste to a good many people here, including Vice President Richard M. Nixon—is quite beyond all this. It is not simply that Rockefeller has confronted the regular and Old Guard Republicans with a very early challenge.

Worse yet, there is every indication that he will be harder even than Dwight D. Eisenhower to bring down from the high, amiable stratosphere in which he floats with such amazing grace and skill.

AT ALBANY the problems of New York State—which must at least for a time strongly engage the new Governor—were well and truly subordinated by Rockefeller to a message not merely to this nation but to all the world.

President Eisenhower, from his very first campaign onward, until lately has been frustrating the regular Republicans beyond belief by observing periodically that he was both conservative and liberal. He was conservative in spending, he used to say, but he was liberal in dealing with the people's needs.

THOSE Republicans with old-fashioned and clear attachments to conservatism—like the Eisenbeing something of a whiz in Germany right now, but that her way into the theatre was through Great Britain.

She was graduated from Sarah Lawrence, where she did no stage work at all, went to England and while there auditioned for the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts and was one of the usual 10 American girls accepted annually.

When her two years were over, she came back and almost forthwith found a summer stock haven at Easthampton and there Van Groma found her and decided she was exactly right for the role of Annabella, the beset. And that's the sum total and where was she going from here?

"I DON'T know, I don't think any actress or actor ever knew," she said. "I am reconciled to that, else I would not be doing what I am doing. Some great stars finish a play and then aren't engaged for three years. It happens. I am ready for whatever comes in the way of luck or bad luck and hope that when something does come I am prepared for it and able to do it."

How can you shoot a young woman as fairly spoken as that?

THIS IS THE relatively new thing in theatre. Well-born youngsters willing to cast their fates with an unpredictable and often heartbreaking profession. They come with a serious point of view, pour themselves into their work and when that is done wait for the next job. They gamble that a good agent will see them and become interested, that a playwright of consequence will see them and remember them, that producers of importance will do the same.

Three critics found Miss Stevens invaluable in her role and, printing this, caused no less a personage than William Inge to come down and see the play and, of course, Miss Stevens. No less a diamond-finder than Audrey Wood, who found Inge and Tennessee Williams, among many others, is coming down after the holidays. Several Broadway producers have seen the play and Miss Stevens.

THEY ARE not knocking her down or besieging her with contracts, but they are aware of her as a talent and a beauty.

"And so where do I go from here?" she said. "I simply don't know. But I want to know as much as I can as well as I can when the time comes. It's the only way."

No wonder I admire players.

Reporter's Notebook

NEW YORK — "For years I tell God went down with the Titanic," said the tiny old lady. "It took a great many years for me to get my faith back."

Mrs. Henry B. Harris shares today a feeling held by man that the sinking of the "unsinkable ship" after crashing into an iceberg in 1912 spelled the end of an age of security the world has never known since. "That way of life seems gone forever," she said.

She was one of the 705 saved when the great ship went down. Her husband of 10 years, a famous New York theatrical producer, was among the 1902 lost.

MRS. HARRIS, now in her 70s, uses a crutch because of an ailing hip. Looking a bit like a crippled elderly thrush, she was the life of the party at a recent reunion of a dozen or so of the 83 Titanic survivors. Afterward she found herself unable to watch the premiere of a British-made film based on the disaster.

Mrs. Harris had broken her elbow when she slipped and fell on the ship stairway a few hours before the fatal collision. She was playing cards with her husband in their suite when the ship struck the iceberg at 11:40 p. m. April 14.

"There was no shock or jar," she recalled. "I simply noticed that my clothing, which had been swinging on hangers a moment before, suddenly stopped swinging."

"When we went up on deck later and saw people getting into the lifeboats, we thought they were sissies. There was no feeling of terror—then."

"But as time passed we realized we were in real danger. My husband begged and pleaded with me to go, but I didn't want to leave him, even though I felt everyone would be saved."

HER HUSBAND finally put her in the last seat in the last collapsible boat, tossed her a blanket, stepped back—and was lost in a sea of faces.

Mrs. Harris, left a millionaire, became America's first theatrical producer, but lost her wealth during the last depression. Something of a career survivor, in the nearly 47 years since the Titanic sinking Mrs. Harris has also weathered two world wars, hard times, and three more marriages.

A lady of indomitable spirit, she observed philosophically:

"If I had my life to live over, I wouldn't change it. After all, I had 10 wonderful, happy, superb, unforgettable years with my first husband."

"He spoiled me for any other man in the world. I have had four marriages—but really only one husband."

Washington Scene

WASHINGTON—Anyone ignorant enough to imply that former Senator George H. Bender may not be earning the $250 a day he receives for performing the Teamsters Union, just isn't keeping abreast of the great Bender "investigation." The cash and carry "prober" has even tried to establish a pen palship with the State's Attorney of Cook County, Illinois, who is a Democrat converted to Republicanism.

The forever-GOP Bender, a pioneer in the field of investigating by mail, wrote to State's Attorney Benjamin S. Adamowski to ask if he knew of any Teamster improprieties in Chicago. In light of the exposures of the McClellan Committee, this seems akin to asking Ike if he knows of any Republicans in the Administration.

I HAVE THE correspondence before me, and I hope you will agree with me that it verges on the remarkable. Bender opened it by writing (rather superfluously, I should think, for anyone who reads the newspapers) that he had been retained by Teamster President James R. Hoffa to head an "Anti-Racketeering Commission" to "investigate" the Teamsters Union. Bender added:

"The Commission has been given a free hand in this assignment. I assure you that it is no whitewash Commission."

However this may have struck him, State's Attorney Adamowski carefully confined himself to this purely routine acknowledgment:

"Dear Mr. Bender: I am in receipt of your letter in which you outline the manner in which the Anti-Racketeering Commission, of which you are chairman, was created. I have carefully noted all that you say and thank you for writing me."

Many would have looked upon this as a kiss-off, but Bender came right back with this billet doux:

"Dear Mr. Adamowski: Thank you for your kind letter in response to mine. We are sincerely appreciative of the fine spirit of cooperation which you have demonstrated in responding to our request for information, and most gratified to know that you have none of the problems discussed in our letter of inquiry."

Bender may have been gratified to assume that the Cook County prosecutor knew of no Teamster improprieties in Chicago, although everyone else did, but how long his gratification continued should be open to question, because Adamowski snapped right back:

"Dear Sir: How any fair-minded person could reach the conclusion you did concerning my letter to you in reply to your communication is beyond comprehension."

"Please be advised that I resent completely the interpretation which you place on a mere courtesy extended by me in acknowledging your letter, especially in view of the fact that my first inclination had been to completely ignore your letter."

"In order that the record will conform to the facts, I would suggest a second perusal of my letter, as I am confident it, in no way, contains that which you so unfairly incorporate in your communication."

ADAMOWSKI was so boiled, he forwarded the correspondence to Senator McClellan, together with this covering letter:

"Dear Mr. Chairman: It occurred to me, as a result of your comments in connection with the $24,000 payment made by Mr. Hoffa of the Teamsters Union to former United States Senator George Bender, from the State of Ohio, you might be interested in the exchange of correspondence which passed between me and Mr. Bender in connection with his appointment by Mr. Hoffa for the purpose set forth in his original communication to me."

"I think you will agree that the comments contained in my communication, which comments on his letter to me, fully warrants the observations in the letter I wrote to him."

McClellan agreed.

Escape From Hatchet, Mikoyan's Mystery

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The great mystery about Russia's First Deputy Premier Anastas Ivanovich Mikoyan is not so much why he came to the United States on an official visit.

It is how he has been able to hang onto his job in the Communist hierarchy, surviving purges, plots and violent changes of leadership in the Kremlin for 41 years.

Mikoyan has just turned 63. He has been a Communist since 1915, when he was graduated from a theological seminary. That was two years before the big revolution of 1917. It makes him one of the few remaining old Bolsheviks still in power.

Russian experts here ascribe Mikoyan's secret of survival to his shrewd Armenian ability to "smell the breeze" and know which way the winds of Communist political chance would blow. He has shifted position accordingly.

THIS SHOWED itself as early as 1922, when he was 27 years old. He was assigned to work with Klementi E. Voroshilov in riding the party of Leon Trotsky elements.

Possibly as a reward, Mikoyan was made full member of the Communist Party Central Committee in 1923. And three years later he was called to Moscow as Commissar of Trade. He was the youngest commissar—at 31. This was in the NEP or New Economic Policy era in which he played a major role.

He became a technician, an economist, an administrator, a bureaucrat, a businessman in the Soviet sense. One interpretation of his record is that he survived because succeeding Communist leaders found they couldn't get along without him—Stalin, Malenkov, Bulganin and now Khrushchev.

In the bloody 1930's when Stalin was running the purge trials and executions which consolidated his position as dictator, Mikoyan remained a loyal Stalinist.

which today has nearly 500,000 stores and does 100 billion dollars' worth of business a year. Mikoyan is still boss of it.

IN 1936 Mikoyan came to the U. S. for a three-months' coast-to-coast tour. He hired American experts and introduced American products and methods to advance Russia's industrialization.

Two years later the job of foreign trade commissar was added to his duties. He negotiated agreements with Germany during the Hitler-Stalin pact era.

When the Nazis attacked Russia, Mikoyan became one of eight ministers who ran the war production effort. He was virtual quartermaster for the Red army. He negotiated Lend-Lease agreements with the U. S. and Great Britain.

After the war, Mikoyan became a member of the Council of Commissars for economic rehabilitation of liberated areas with Georgi M. Malenkov. They reportedly differed on policy. But when Stalin died in 1953 and was succeeded by Malenkov, he retained Mikoyan as deputy chairman and minister of foreign and domestic trade.

IN THE 1953-55 period, Mikoyan was responsible for building up consumer goods. But when Bulganin became chairman of the council of ministers and cut back consumer goods to place more emphasis on heavy industry, Mikoyan resigned or was dropped from his job as minister of trade. He was retained, however, as first deputy chairman of the presidium, overseeing both domestic and foreign trade.

The ousting of Bulganin and the rise of Khrushchev to chairmanship has made no difference in Mikoyan's standing. If anything, it is enhanced.

For Mikoyan sided with Voroshilov and Zhukov to keep Khrushchev in power when Malenkov, Molotov and Kaganovich tried to overthrow him. Only to be ousted, themselves.

Mikoyan's speeches indicate that he repents Khrushchev's boasts that Soviet Russia will surpass the United States in economic output. Mikoyan is considered the operator if not the architect of Russia's economic warfare policies against the U. S. throughout the world.

He is completely Communist. He is crafty, he is flexible, he is smart. He has kept his head by not sticking his neck out at the wrong time.

Tawes In Charge As Legislature Gets Underway

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—The 1959 Maryland Legislature today opened a 90-day performance with the stage painstakingly set by the star and director of the show, Gov.-elect J. Millard Tawes.

Finan Choice To State Job Seen Popular

First Appointment Made By Tawes Who Takes Post Wednesday

Thomas B. Finan, Cumberland attorney and city solicitor for eight years, will be the new secretary of state of Maryland, Governor-elect J. Millard Tawes has announced.

Gov.-Elect Tawes said Finan's name will be sent to the State Senate next Wednesday for confirmation.

It will be the new governor's first formal appointment after his inauguration next Wednesday and his selection of Finan comes as no surprise.

Choice Popular
The Associated Press reported today that the choice seemed to be a popular one among legislators gathered in Annapolis for the beginning of the General Assembly today.

Known in political circles as one of the more articulate, good-humored young Democrats, Finan is expected to receive speedy approval for the $10,000-a-year job being vacated by Claude B. Hellman, a Republican appointee of outgoing Gov. McKeldin.

By legal definition, the secretary of state's job is essentially that of a record-keeper and witness to the governor's signature on proclamations and similar papers.

By tradition, it has become one of general advisor and substitute for the governor at official social functions.

Party Leader

Finan, 44, became a logical choice for a top spot in Tawes' new administration through his background and work as a prominent figure in the state Democratic circles.

During the 1958 primary and general elections, he served as general chairman over the state's 23 counties for the Tawes-led Democratic ticket.

In Allegany County he is already a veteran member of its Democratic Central Committee, serving as its chairman for the past four years.

For eight of the ten years between 1948 and 1958, he was city solicitor of Cumberland.

A native of Cumberland, he is the son of the late Thomas B. and Mary Maude (Dolan) Finan.

LaSalle Graduate
He is a graduate of LaSalle Institute, Class of 1932. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Georgetown University and his bachelor of laws degree from University of Maryland in 1939.

He returned to Cumberland in 1939 and opened a private law practice. He was inducted into the Army in 1941 as a private and after four years service in the infantry rose to rank of captain.

He was with the 45th Division in North Africa, Italy, and France. After being captured in France, he was a prisoner of war of the Germans for nine months. After his war service, he became associated with the law firm of Miles, Walsh, O'Brien and Morris with offices in the Liberty Trust Building. He continued this until 1952, when he went into private practice.

In Civic Affairs
In 1948, he was chosen by the Mayor and Council as city solicitor, a position he held for eight years, ending in 1958 except for one two-year period.

Finan has been active in civic and veterans affairs. He is a past president of the Cumberland Elks Club and past exalted ruler of Cumberland Lodge 63, BPO Elks.

Since 1939, he has been vice president and director of the Tawes and Allegany Company. He is a past commander of the Cumberland Post 13, American Legion, and served one term as state judge advocate for the Legion.

He is married to the former Miss Isabelle North of Cambridge and the couple lives at 532 Washington Street with their two sons, Thomas B. Jr., a student at LaSalle High School, and Timothy, a pupil at St. Peter and Paul School.

The family belongs to St. Patrick's Catholic Church.

LaVale Zone Appeal Case Before Court

Property Owners Seeking Decision On Board Ruling

A suit brought by Harry L. and Dorothy Lucas as aggrieved parties in the decision of the LaVale Zoning Board in denying an occupancy permit to the Rish Equipment Company for property they own in LaVale was begun today in Circuit Court before Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris.

On December 10 the LaVale board ruled against the Rish firm, which wanted to use the Lucas building as a service and sales headquarters for heavy construction equipment. Lucas has operated a truck service and sales business in the building since 1947 as a non-conforming establishment.

The LaVale board, through its attorney Leslie J. Clark, said it felt the Rish firm would not be continuing the same type of business under the non-conforming permit Lucas held. It cited the size of the huge pieces of equipment.

Clark said the ultimate aim in cases of non-conforming uses in the LaVale section was to eliminate this type of permit in cases where the use of buildings changed.

William J. Geppert, attorney for the Lucas couple, told the court that the new business would be of the same type as that Lucas had been engaged in, but would be of a more extensive nature. Geppert, who is co-counsel with Hugh A. McMullen for the couple, said the heavy repairs were made in the field as the machines were not easily moved.

Lucas, the first witness, said the building was erected especially for handling heavy equipment. He cited the reinforced concrete floors, high doors through which big vehicles could move and large "I" beams in the ceiling which were used in attaching hoisting devices in servicing equipment.

Both sides in the dispute will submit briefs to Judge Harris pending completion of the testimony. A decision will not be made immediately, the court indicated.

Water Lack Shuts School

It was necessary to close the Mt. Savage School today due to a lack of water, according to Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools.

Webster said that sometime last night, a submersible pump located 512 feet down a well shaft stopped operating and the flow of water into the 20,000-gallon storage tank outside the school stopped.

About three years ago a shortage of water caused a shutdown at the school, Webster said. He said there is plenty of water in the deep well but it must be pumped to the surface by the submersible device.

The school uses almost 12,000 gallons of water daily and it was felt that the school should be closed due to the very small supply on hand. Workmen were busy today making repairs and Webster said the school will probably be reopened for classes tomorrow.

Aircraft Firm Not To Submit Port Bid

A representative of the Allegany Aircraft Corporation announced today the firm does not plan to offer the Municipal Airport Commission a bid to operate the airport as indicated at Monday's meeting of the commission.

The only proposal to operate the port has been submitted by Warren R. Mullenax, who has been in charge a number of years. His current lease expires March 1.

At the same time, Republicans held a cozy little session in Baltimore to elect Sen. Harry T. Phoebe (R-Somerset) as Senate minority leader and to name Del. Lester B. Reed (R-Allegany) as House minority leader.

They were named at a meeting attended by about 125 members of the Republican State Central Committee. The group blamed November's election defeat on unemployment and lack of precinct organization. The GOP leaders also mapped plans for a comeback campaign in the 1960 elections.

Tawes said his selection of Della and Wilkinson came after a careful canvass of the General Assembly's membership "to determine the sentiments regarding the leadership of the two bodies."

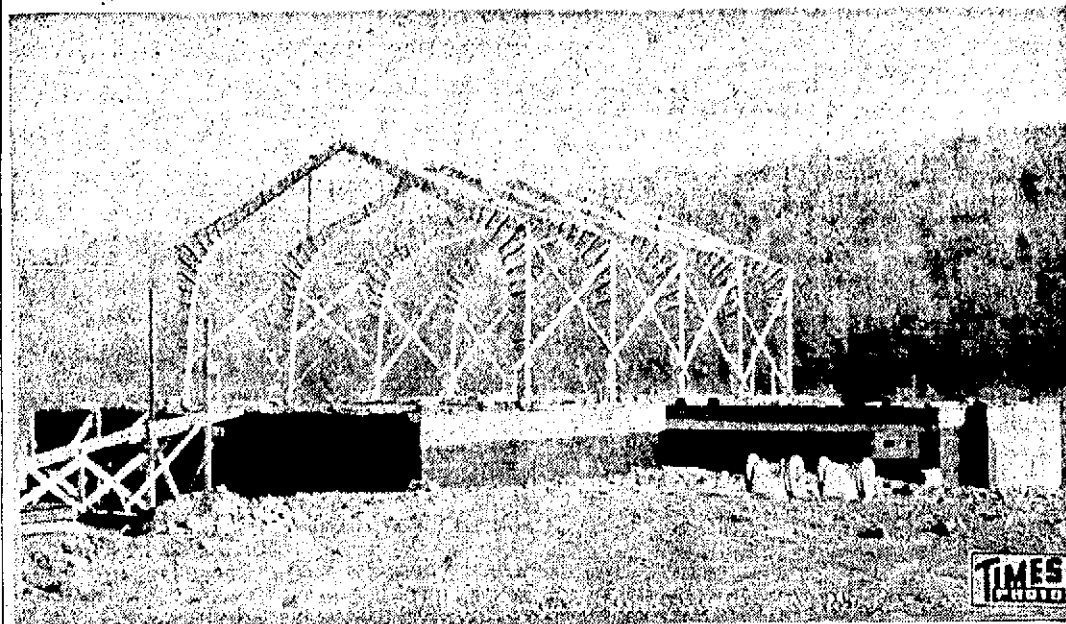

"I have reexamined the qualifications of the two men and it seems to me that both are eminently suited for the positions," he said.

Della Veteran
Della, a South Baltimore lawyer, has served in the Senate since 1939 and was president in the 1951-54 term. Wilkinson, an insurance man, has been a delegate since 1942 and speaker pro tem since 1948.

Della succeeds Louis L. Goldstein, newly elected State comptroller, and Wilkinson takes up the gavel after John C. Lubber (D-Baltimore), who was defeated in the 1958 primary.

Finan, 44, served eight years as Cumberland's city solicitor and was general county chairman of the 1958 Democratic campaign.

Simpkins is a 36-year-old lawyer from Tawes' home county of Somerset. He served eight years in the House and was narrowly defeated last November when he opposed Phoebe for the Senate.

CHURCH GOES UP—This is the first of two units being built by the congregation of First Methodist Church on Bedford Street. This will be the edifice and the second unit will be a minister's dwelling to go on the right of this U-shaped structure. When completed it will be U-shaped. Rev. Everett Culp, pastor, said a kick-off dinner Friday at 6:30 p. m. will be held by the congregation in the church hall on Bedford Street to start the second phase of the financial campaign. Russell Rubeson is the contractor building the first unit at a cost of $105,000.

Hitchcock Honored By El Fidel Club

George M. Hitchcock Sr., for 11 years superintendent of the Cumberland waterworks, was honored last night at a testimonial dinner at Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club by the El Fidel Club.

Hitchcock will assume his new post as city manager of Fernandino Beach, Fla., Saturday. Judge Richard C. Snyder of Bedford (Pa.) County Court lauded Hitchcock, whom he described as a friend of many years.

About 125 members of the club and friends attended the dinner with Lee Silcox as toastmaster. Among those who spoke briefly were former Mayor R. W. Eves, A. R. Tenney, road foreman of engines for the B&O Railroad, Charles M. Koonz, Bedford attorney, and Charles F. Hare, president of the club.

The program was opened with the invocation by Rev. Louis L. Emerich, pastor of Elliott Methodist Church on Bedford Road. John Morris introduced the toastmaster and welcomed the guests.

Hitchcock gave a brief resume of his new job and the community which he will serve. He outlined some of the history of the city, which is the northernmost community on the east coast of Florida. In 1962 the city will observe its 400th anniversary. It has been under eight flags since its founding in 1562 by the French.

Hitchcock was presented a billfold and cash and Mrs. Hitchcock was presented a bouquet of red roses by Mrs. Vada Drum Barnard. Hare made the presentation to Hitchcock.

Among the out-of-town guests were Peter L. Dodge, Baltimore, of the State Department of Health and a number of Bedford County residents. Mrs. Grayson Lucas played the accompaniment for group singing led by E. S. Leasure and with the El Fidel Glee Club taking part.

Mayor Believes Employees Should Get Pay Increase

(This is another in a series of reviews of activities of the Mayor and Council since it took office six months ago.)

Mayor J. Edwin Keech thinks the city should move every stone in an effort to give its employees a raise in pay but at the same time believes the will of the people should be followed and no tax increases made.

The mayor is in Annapolis today with concrete proposals for increasing revenues of municipalities which he is presenting before the Maryland Municipal League's Legislative Council and Legislative Committee. Among these are amendments to the home rule law to allow other forms of taxation than on the property owner; more equitable distribution of income tax; gasoline and motor vehicle taxes; and a share for municipalities in fines charged for state traffic violations where arrests are made by city officers.

The mayor previously had expressed his concern over the plight of city workers caught in a squeeze between the rising cost of living and the fact no funds have been available to grant them pay increases.

Cites Activities

In looking back over the first six months of his administration, Keech cited a number of activities, primary among which has been a sincere effort by all concerned to familiarize themselves with the machinery of municipal government as a whole. Council as a body and individually, has toured each department and operation under its jurisdiction; considered financing; and held discussions on activities both as they affect the present and at long-range.

It has been a busy, enlightening six months, Keech says. One notable note occurred when the mayor broke ground for the Cumberland Thruway project at Fifth and Seymour Streets August 8. The mayor, a native South Ender, played cowboys and Indians on that very spot when a boy.

Among other activities cited include participation in the "Salute To Cumberland" over a Virginia television station; rededication of the City Health Board of which he is chairman; and efforts to complete razing of buildings on the site of the third low-rent housing project so that construction can start in the spring.

Must Restore Streets
The mayor notified utilities they will be responsible for restoring streets when they are disturbed for repair work and must work round-the-clock until streets are open to traffic again.

He cited fire hazards at Municipal Airport and suggested periodic inspections of hangars.

Dumping of refuse and trash in Wills Creek was declared "deplorable and a disgrace" and brought a warning from the Mayor that laws were being checked and violators would be prosecuted.

Younger Services

A requiem mass will be celebrated for Mrs. Alice Yeager, 54, of 64 Greene Street, who died yesterday in Memorial Hospital, Friday at 9 a. m. in St. Patrick's Catholic Church. Interment will be in the parish cemetery.

Liquor Sales Sunday Not Substantiated

Grand Jury Finds Allegations Based On Rumor, Speculation

The January grand jury completed its duties yesterday afternoon and in its report to Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris stated that accusations by liquor dealers that clubs were violating the Sunday laws were without proper foundation.

Allegations had been made that clubs were operated on Sunday in violation of the liquor laws. The grand jurors contend the allegations were the result of rumors and speculation, and that officers of the Allegany County Liquor Dealers Association were unable to provide any evidence of alleged violations.

Another section of the brief report laments the absence of records of investigations by law enforcement officers of the county.

Six Indictments

The report notes that the October 1958 grand jury recommended that all law enforcement officers keep records of inspections of criminal activity including the date, time and place of investigation or inspection and present this information to each succeeding grand jury. The only office fully complying with this request is the office of Sheriff Edward R. Muir.

States Attorney James S. Getty was requested to again inform each law enforcement officer that this data should be made and reported to each grand jury in writing. With these investigation reports, the grand jury will be better able to determine if adequate policing is being carried out throughout the county.

The grand jury reported that in its two days of activities 24 indictments were examined and six indictments were returned.

Another major recommendation is that in the future all grand jurors be summoned personally by a deputy from the sheriff's office and that the practice of summoning jurors or other witnesses by telephone be discontinued. Only seven of the 23 present grand jurors said they were summoned personally.

A specific recommendation in the fifth section of the report urged that Judge Harris himself appoint an executive committee and a county-wide committee to formulate plans for the erection of a memorial to George Washington on the Court House property.

Recommended for appointment to this committee were Miss Ruth Clauson, J. William Hunt, Ralph R. Webster and Miss Mary G. Walsh.

Clean Streets Urged

The Mayor and Council of both Cumberland and Frostburg were requested to take further steps to see that the streets and sidewalks of their respective towns be kept in a cleaner condition. The cooperation of merchants, business people and the public at large was sought to reduce the amount of litter thrown on the streets. On this recommendation the grand jurors further endorse the practice of adequate packing of litter and refuse in receptacles to prevent its being scattered by the wind before it can be collected.

Among the 15 specific recommendations in the report is a renewal of one made last October that the county commissioners consider the feasibility of equipping the two cars assigned to the sheriff's office with radio equipment.

Most of the recommendations concern the physical condition of such buildings as the Court House, County Jail, Sylvan Retreat, County Home and Infirmary.

Among these suggestions were the conversion of the solitary confinement quarters at the County Jail into a "drunk tank" if it can be done at reasonable cost, employment of an additional female employee in the County Jail kitchen, repair and replacement of County Jail windows, painting the interior of the County Jail, wiring improvements in the county agent's office at the Court House, removal of stairway wax at the Court House, an additional handrail from the first floor to the Court House basement, enlargement of the County Infirmary, removal of the juvenile detention quarters to suitable space in the sheriff's office.

Improvements Suggested

Beall Dinner Event Draws 400 Persons

A final count will be taken tonight by the committee planning the testimonial dinner for U. S. Sen. J. Glenn Beall Friday at 6:30 p. m. at the Clary Club.

The request for and sale of reservations for the event has been much greater than expected by the committee which is comprised of James S. Getty, Donald W. Mason and George R. Hughes Jr.

Over 400 persons from all parts of the county and also from both political parties will attend the non-partisan tribute to the only Allegany County man to be named to two terms in the U. S. Senate.

Honorary chairman for the event are Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris, Edmund S. Burke and William E. Jenkins.

Talks will be made Friday night by Judge Harris, Jenkins, Lewis J. Ort and William A. Gunter.

Hughes said today that due to the large number of persons buying tickets the committee finds that it will be unable to arrange for table reservations due to the capacity of the hall.

He said the committee has had to turn down a number of requests for reserved tables because of those two factors.

Snow, Sleet Is Expected

Some snow or sleet is likely in the tri-state section by tonight and it is to be followed by rising temperatures and rain tomorrow afternoon, according to the Weather Bureau.

Temperatures were still below freezing this morning with Cumberland having 15, Oakland, seven, and Accident, nine.

But by noon the mercury had gone up to 27 degrees in Cumberland, and 24 degrees at Oakland and Accident.

The Allegany-Garrett county forecast calls for it to be cloudy and not as cold tonight, with the low in the middle to upper 20s with some snow or sleet likely.

Tomorrow is to be a little warmer with some occasional rain. Friday is to be cloudy with slightly higher temperatures in the afternoon.

The district office of the State Roads Commission reported the highways west of Frostburg which were covered with a six-inch fall of snow Monday have been cleared up.

Chains are not recommended for vehicles traveling there.

Glass Plant Talks Resume

PHILADELPHIA (U)—Federal mediators resume their efforts today to end a 93-day strike against the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

Negotiators for the company and the United Glass and Ceramic Workers Union accepted a proposal by Joseph F. Finnegan, chief of the U. S. Mediation and Conciliation Service, that the meetings be transferred from Cincinnati to Philadelphia. The proposal was made at the last session Saturday.

The strike, which began Oct. 6, has idled some 13,000 workers in 11 plants.

Regional Director Robert Donahoe, James Bentley of Cincinnati, and Heywood Montoney of Columbus, Ohio, comprise the federal mediation team. Ralph Riiser, president of the union, and Donald J. Sherbondy, industrial relations director for Pittsburgh Plate Glass, head their respective negotiating committees.

Job classifications, incentive pay and seniority provisions are the prime issues in dispute.

Sherbondy has stated that there has been progress on all disputed issues except for the question of seniority at the firm's plant at Creighton, Pa.

New Physician Begins Mineral County Practice

KEYSER—Dr. Phillip G. Slaggers yesterday began the general practice of medicine at Potomac Valley Hospital in association with Dr. Robert McCoy. He will have offices in the hospital and will treat patients there as well as make house calls.

After serving as a medical officer with the Marines at Santa Ana, Calif., Dr. Slaggers only recently arrived in Keyser. He and Mrs. Slaggers, the former Miss Mabel Jean Wilson, of Pennsboro, and their daughter, are residing at Hawthorne Heights in a home purchased from Arnold C. Haggerty.

Dr. Slaggers is a native of Mineral County, the son of Piedmont High School Principal Vernon A. Slaggers and Mrs. Slaggers. He is a graduate of Piedmont High School and attended Potomac State College for one year and the University of Maryland two years, doing his undergraduate work.

He received his medical degree from the University of Maryland School of Medicine in June 1955. After serving his internship at the U. S. Naval Hospital in San Diego, Calif., he attended the School of Aviation Medicine at Pensacola, Fla., and then was transferred to Santa Ana where he completed his service with the Marines.

Apple Blossom Festival Dates Are Announced

WINCHESTER—The annual Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival will be held here on April 30-May 1, according to F. L. Largent Jr., president of the springtime fete.

This year will mark the thirty-second presentation of the blossom spectacle, which draws upward of 200,000 persons to this apple-land capital and the Shenandoah Valley area. The festival's headquarters office here has assumed a spring-like air, in spite of wintry weather, as staff members busy themselves with correspondence, meetings and plans for the blossom fete.

The celebrated Pageant of Springtime will again unfold, in two performances, on the steps and esplanade of Colonial-pillared Handley High School. Dr. Garfield R. Quarles, superintendent of Winchester schools, long-time author and narrator of the production, will again head the pageant presentation department of the festival.

Thursday, April 30, will be featured by the coronation of Queen Shenandoah and the unique firemen's night parade. The Department of the Queen and Her Court, responsible for the selection of a young lady of national prominence to reign during apple blossom time, is now at work. Members of this department of the fete are also making plans for the 36 apple blossom princesses, representing schools and colleges in the Virginias, Maryland, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia.

The grand feature parade, climax of the two-day celebration, will be directed this year by Bernard F. Graves Jr., representing the Winchester Lions Club, which, for the sixteenth year, will provide the entire administrative personnel for the three and one-half-hour float parade. Half a hundred floats, 60-odd bands and a grand marshal of celebrity stature will feature the parade.

Rounding out the apple blossom fete will be concerts, dances, exhibits, apple pie baking and majorette contests.

Blood Donor Report Given

FROSTBURG—One hundred pints of blood were collected by the Johnstown bloodmobile unit on its six-hour visit to the American Legion Home here yesterday.

Mrs. G. Franklin Marlene, chairman of the Frostburg Blood Bank, said there was some disappointment that the quota of 120 pints was not reached. However, she expressed appreciation to donors appearing despite the near-zero weather. She also said that some of the regular local contributors gave blood Monday on the visit to the Celanese plant. Some 239 pints were collected that day.

Five donors were rejected for one reason or another. Fifty percent or 85 of the 170 scheduled for blood donations yesterday kept their appointments. There were only three first-time givers: Barbara Lewis, Dorey Street, Frostburg, and Charles Smith, a Frostburg State Teachers College student from Detroit.

Mrs. Marlene said five donors gained admission in the One Gallon Club for contributing their eighth pint. They included Mrs. Anna Minnick, South Water Street; Mrs. Catherine Perkins, Wrights Crossing; Ronald J. Taylor, Wrights Crossing; James E. Quinn, Cumberland, and George W. Bucklew, Hill Street.

Two others gained membership in the Two Gallon Club. They are Oliver Fabbri, McCulloch Street, and Earl Boyer, Linden Street.

There were five other donors who made the Three Gallon Club by giving their twenty-fourth pint of blood: John Conrad, Hill Street; John Lea Bean, Maple Street, and Drucilla Schrine, Mt. Pleasant Street.

Trees To Be Collected

LONA CONING—Christmas trees will be collected tomorrow, according to Robert B. Thomas, the town clerk. Residents are requested to place their discarded trees at the curb for the convenience of collectors.

Preston Gets Distress Tag

KINGWOOD, W. Va. (AP)—The Cheat Valley Industrial Development Association has taken steps to have the Preston County area embracing Rowlesburg and Manheim declared a locality of economic distress.

D. M. Miles, treasurer of the residents of the Flintstone area association, was quoted that he may sign up Friday from 1 p. m. to 4 p. m. at the high school.

The development association scheduled its next meeting for the middle of this month, when Sens. Jennings Randolph and Robert C. Byrd (both D-WVa) and Rep. Har- Groves (D-WVa) are expected to attend.

The crushing economic blow, the association announced, came when the Alpha Portland Cement Co. closed its plant which employed 180 men in the Rowlesburg and Manheim area.

PIEDMONT, W. VA.

The news of Tom Nugent's appointment as Tommy Mont's successor at the University of Maryland came as a big disappointment to Cumberland's Bill Hahn.

The man who has made Fort Hill High School synonymous with football championships was an applicant for the Maryland post, as were 89 others, but whereas many applied, only a few were chosen for interviews. Hahn was among that select group.

Two Saturdays ago Bill spent three hours in conferences at College Park, talking over the Maryland situation with athletic director Bill Cobey for an hour and a half and occupying the same amount of time in the office of Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, university president.

Dr. Elkins requested Hahn to keep news of the interview quiet. Bill, who told us about the "screening" in confidence, was of the opinion he had a good chance for the job, although he pointed out that nothing in the way of a promise was given him by either Cobey or Dr. Elkins.

"It was a real fine interview," Hahn told us last week. "We went into the entire football picture at Maryland and I got the impression that there was to be no de-emphasis."

Dr. Elkins, impressed by Hahn's fabulous won-lost record as Fort Hill coach, asked Bill to what he attributed his 109 victories against only 11 defeats and six ties.

During the period of football rebuilding at Maryland, Hahn sent more players to College Park than any other coach. Three of them (Fred Davis, John Alderton and Gene Alderton) became Terp captains. And two of his high school players are now assistant Maryland coaches. They are Gene Alderton, who led the freshman team last fall, and Roy Lester whom Bill tutored when he was coaching at Spencer (W. Va.) High.

"Wonder what a fellow has to do to get a break," Hahn declared yesterday when informed of the Nugent appointment. He talked, not in a tone of bitterness, but in one of disappointment.

There have been some mighty fine college coaches come out of the high school ranks. Paul Brown being the prime example. In fact, Nugent coached at Hopewell (Va.) and Williamsburg (Va.) High before taking a crack at the college game.

Full of confidence in his ability and having a score of years of coaching experience, Hahn twice was snubbed by Maryland. The first time was in 1956 when he was an applicant for the job left vacant by Jim Tatum. The school picked Mont without interviewing any other applicant.

Prior to that Hahn had turned down several offers to get into college coaching as an assistant. The first time was when Rip Engle was still at Brown. And several years ago Tatum tried to lure Bill to Maryland.

We have heard Tatum on a number of occasions declare that Maryland got no players sounder in fundamentals than those coached by Hahn. And by the same token, no teams ever came to Cumberland showing more polish than Hahn's Sentinels.

It's unfortunate, indeed, that Bill has not been given a chance to meet the challenge as a college head coach.

And even though he is not bitter about being a "two-time loser," we doubt if he continues to use his influence in sending his Fort Hill stars to Maryland. Quarterback Charley Robinson and tackle Bob Rowley from this past season's undefeated team are both considered prospects but it's our opinion neither will wind up at Maryland.

Vandy Win Over Kentucky Top Upset Of Season

Loss First For Wildcat Quint Since Last Winter

By MILTON RICHMAN

United Press International

Unranked Vanderbilt and an unassuming but hot-shooting Little Hoosier proved to be the undoing of previously unbeaten Kentucky.

It all happened at Nashville, Tenn., Tuesday night when Vanderbilt handed top-ranked Kentucky its first losing record in 12 starts this season, 75-66, for possibly the biggest upset of the basketball campaign so far.

Jim Henry, a New Albany, Ind., native who barely stretches six feet, was the man chiefly responsible for Kentucky's first loss since last Feb. 24.

Henry, whose chief hobby is tropical fish, also collects points and the 28 he came up with Tuesday night were enough to snap a Wildcat winning streak which had extended to 16 games over two seasons.

Kentucky, last year's NCAA champions, fell behind early, stayed ice cold throughout the first half and never was able to catch up. The inspired Commodores, who had won five games and lost five until Tuesday night, walked off the floor with a 41-27 lead at half-time and then came back to run up a 17-point lead in the second half.

Kentucky Looks Sluggish

Held in check by a man-to-man defense, the Wildcats rallied late in the second half to cut Vandy's margin to six points, 70-64, with three minutes to go, but the Commodores never let them get any closer.

Kentucky looked sluggish all night, connecting on only 23 of 81 shots for a sub-par 28.5 per cent average. Billy Lickert was the Wildcats' high scorer with 14 points.

The victory was only the 13th for Vanderbilt over Kentucky in their series which goes back to 1912. During that time, the Wildcats defeated the Commodores 55 times.

Second-ranked North Carolina State also suffered quite a scare before coming on to down Virginia, 73-68, for its 10th victory in 11 games.

The Wolfpack blew a 10-point lead in the first half and the underdog Cavaliers rallied again to go in front in the second half. But Bob MacGillivray put North Carolina State ahead to stay, 53-53, with 7:58 remaining and Virginia never again came closer than two points.

In First Place

By winning, the Wolfpack took over sole possession of first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference, pushing idle North Carolina into second place.

Trailing by 19 points in the first half, Butler suddenly caught fire and came on to whip Notre Dame, 62-60. With Notre Dame leading 58-57 late in the game, Dick Halfon netted a jump shot that gave Butler a lead it never lost. The Irish played without their top scorer, Tom Hawkins, who was sidelined with a sprained ankle.

Center Ken Pennington paced Butler with 20 points while John Tulley was high for Notre Dame with 18.

Bobby James hit for 30 points to lead Southern Methodist to a 73-55 win over Texas, and Rice eased past Texas A&M, 70-65, in a n other Southwest Conference clash.

In other games: Xavier of Ohio tripped Miami of Ohio, 85-79; Hardin-Simmons defeated Trinity (Tex.), 70-54; Texas Tech licked Baylor, 68-65; College of the Pacific topped Chico State, 61-53; Richmond licked The Citadel, 69-62; Virginia Tech tumbled George Washington, 86-81; Niagara beat Syracuse, 70-55; Dartmouth nipped Yale, 52-51; Connecticut defeated Maine, 73-58, and Brooklyn College edged St. Francis (N.Y.), 86-85.

Vandy Coach Fails To See Big Victory

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Vanderbilt's basketball coach Bob Poik, didn't see his team upset mighty Kentucky Tuesday night. He didn't even hear the radio broadcast. His doctors forbade it.

But after the game he received the news and relaxed, saying, "It was terrific. It was terrific. I felt (Continued on Page 13)

LaSalle Ends Slump, Whips Bisons, 50-39

Running off a string of 10 points while holding Bedford scoreless in the late stages of the final period, LaSalle High's hoopers snapped out of a three-game losing spin with a 50-39 victory over the Bisons last night at the Penny Gym.

The triumph was the third in nine outings for coach George Geatz's charges while the Bisons were beaten for the second time in four starts.

The Explorers, who gained the upper hand in the third quarter by breaking a 33-33 deadlock, pulled away on a foul shot by Mike Long and basket by Mike Mackert. The string of counters in the final heat sealed the verdict.

Mackert, who led all scorers with 18 points, gave LaSalle its biggest margin, 50-37, after Smith had broken the Bedford drought with a bucket. Smith's two foul shots wound up the scoring with 30 seconds to go, giving LaSalle its biggest win margin of the campaign.

Mackert, scoring the highest total of his career, had seven fielders and four penalty piches. "Ace" Geiser was the only other hooper to hit in double figures, the Bedford forward coming up with 16 tallies on seven goals and two penalty piches.

The Explorers had a 20-14 edge from the field and hit on 10 of 16 free throws to 11 of 21 for the Keystone Staters. LaSalle's next outing will be against Paw Paw on the St. Peter and Paul court Friday night.

New Football League Seen Moving Closer

CINCINNATI (AP)—The American Conference, a nationwide football league of colleges which now are regarded as independents, is likely to come a lot closer to realization at this week's meetings of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. and allied bodies.

This conference, which has been under discussion for several years, would include about a dozen teams from the East and the Pacific Coast, with Notre Dame as the all-important middle college.

Discussions have ranged from hot to cold for some time, but the breakup of the Pacific Coast Conference has made the Big Four of California (football) and the University of Washington, closely allied with the Pacific group, available for other affiliations.

Potential members include Southern California, UCLA, Stanford, California and Washington on the West Coast, Syracuse, Pitt, Penn State, Army, Navy, West Virginia and Miami (Fla.) in the East and possibly Notre Dame and the Air Force Academy in the middle territory.

Such an alliance has been proposed on several occasions but so far, the colleges never have reached an agreement. Several other colleges have been mentioned as possible members.

The proposed league also has been tabbed as the Airplane Conference.

By using air transportation, games could be played without serious interruption of academic schedules.

Moose Shooting For Fourth Win

Loyal Order of Moose will attempt to get back on the victory trail tonight when it meets Chaney's Transportation in a City Basketball League game at Carver Gym, starting at 7 o'clock. An hour later Fortly & Eight goes against Old Exports.

The Moose capped their first three games but were handed their first setback Monday by the undefeated Old Germans who took over undisputed possession of first place. The Moose are tied with Knights of Columbus for second, while Chaney's and Fortly & Eight have 1-3 records and the Old Exports are winless in four starts.

Don Moran is setting the scoring pace, the Old German star having tallied 103 points for a 25.8 average. The leading scorers:

Terps Battle Duke Tonight, Seek Fourth

By The Associated Press

Duke, a squad loaded with talented sophomores, clashes with veteran Maryland at College Park tonight in the only Atlantic Coast Conference basketball action.

The Terrapins have won only three of eight games but they're tough when it comes to giving up points. They lead the ACC in defense, yielding an average of only 57 points a game.

Duke, which edged Wake Forest 58-57 Monday night, enters the game with a 5-5 showing.

Virginia's Cavaliers, unsaved by North Carolina State's No. 2 ranking, lost last night, but they couldn't curb the deadly shooting of little Lou Pucillo.

The result was a 73-68 victory in a game that was close all the way. The Cavaliers pulled within three points with 35 seconds left.

The Wolfpack put the game away on a pair of free throws by Mark Reiner and a layup by Pucillo, who had 21 points for the night. Virginia's John Haner was top scorer with 22.

Richter was limited to nine points.

The victory, State's fourth straight in the conference, boosted its record to 10-1.

Hyndman Drubs Oldtown, 64-29

Hyndman High's quint was never in trouble last night in romping to a 64-29 victory over Winless Oldtown on the Hornets' court. The winners, who have taken three in a row, now have a 4-1 mark for the season.

Ed Thompson led the 29-goal barrage of Hyndman with 18 points while Oldtown, limited to nine fielders, was paced by Larry Crabtree's 10 counters.

Hyndman's Jayvees beat Oldtown in the preliminary game, 47-22.

Franklin Preserves Streak; Pair PVC Tilts Set Tonight

Four quints hoping to stay in the Potomac Valley Conference basketball race will have their chance tonight when Ridgeley invades Keyser and Fort Ashby is host to Paw Paw.

The Hawks, bolstered with the return of six-eight Mike Detrick following a pre-season ankle injury, are at the 500 mark in the circuit for four games while being 3-5 overall. Keyser has lost only once in three PVC attempts while showing a 4-2 log for the season.

Romney and Fort Ashby have set down the Hawks while wins have been marked up at the expense of Elk Garden and West Virginia Deaf. The Pioneers also beat the Golden Tornado while coach John Shelton's quint whipped Moorefield and Elk Garden.

Fort Ashby is also among the leaders, the Eagles sporting a 3-1 record while being 5-2 for the campaign. Paw Paw has divided its two conference tests with the Pirates carrying a 5-1 mark into the clash.

Franklin's Panthers continue to mop up the opposition as coach "Gus" Smith's dribblers ran their unbeaten streak to eight last night with a sweep over Moorefield, 61-49, at Franklin.

The Panthers, who moved within a half game of pacing Romney (5-0) in the PVC by recording their fourth triumph in the loop, had taken a 59-53 decision over the Jackets earlier in the season.

Guard Bill Wimer showed the way for the winners with seven goals and four free throws for 18 tallies. Orville "Shorty" Rexrode dropped in 16 markers and Jack Simon contributed 10.

Bill Keller paced Moorefield with 15 tallies while Jim Paugh registered 11 and R. J. Bean 10. Franklin, on top all the way, had margins of 12-3, 30-18 and 49-29 at the quarter posts. The Panthers had a five-goal edge, 25-21, while hitting for 9 of 17 penalty piches to 7 of 15 for the Jackets.

Moorefield is now 3-4 for the season.

Terps Due For Surprises Under Their New Coach

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—Whether Maryland football fortunes go up or down next fall, the fans are probably in for some surprises with Coach Tom Nugent at the helm.

The Florida State University head coach, who moves into the Maryland job Jan. 15, is an experimenter and a careful planner of plays. He led FSU to a 7-3 season last year, his sixth at Florida State.

The 45-year-old father of nine is eager to try his brand of football.

Nugent's Record As College Coach

Here is Tom Nugent's record as a college coach:

Year	School	W.	L.	T.
1949	Va. Military	3	5	1
1950	Va. Military	6	4	0
1951	Va. Military	7	3	0
1952	Va. Military	3	6	1
1953	Fla. State	5	5	0
1954	Fla. State	8	3	0
1955	Fla. State	5	5	0
1956	Fla. State	5	4	1
1957	Fla. State	4	6	0
1958	Fla. State	7	3	0

ball at the University of Maryland and Maryland officials are happy to have him.

"I am enthusiastic about the opportunity at Maryland," Nugent said yesterday after the board of regents announced his appointment. "The school has a great background and the future looks bright."

Dr. Wilson Elkins, president of Maryland, said the university was lucky to get Nugent. "His football is original with an interesting style of play."

Nugent's over-all coaching record, including four years at Virginia Military Institute and six at FSU is 53 wins, 45 losses and three ties.

Victories will be welcomed at Maryland, which hasn't had a winning season in three years. Under a de-emphasized football program Maryland skidded from the nation's No. 1 gridiron power in 1953 to far out of the running last year with a 4 and 6 record.

Whether Maryland now plans to de-emphasize a bit, remains to be seen.

Nugent takes over from another man with the same front name: Tommy Mont, who resigned under pressure in December.

Nugent's FSU Seminoles lost 14-6 to Oklahoma State in the Bluegrass Bowl at Louisville, Ky., Dec. 13 after knocking off Tennessee and Miami in running up their 7-3 record.

Nugent is expected to draw $15,000 annually at Maryland, plus fringe benefits.

He said that on Jan. 15 he'll discuss the Terrapins' football outlook for next season and consult with university officials about assistants.

Rivals Greet Nugent News With Surprise

CINCINNATI (AP)—Fellow athletic directors and coaches today greeted the news that Tom Nugent has signed as head football coach at Maryland with surprise, praise and well wishes.

Nugent is among 2,000 delegates here for the 33rd annual NCAA convention and the American Football Coaches Assn. meeting. He had just arrived yesterday from Florida State University, where he had been athletic director and football coach for the past six years, when the news of his new post was released by the University of Maryland.

Chuck Erickson, athletic director at the University of North Carolina, said, "Tom is a wonderful, fine young man. He has a great record and we welcome him into the Atlantic Coast Conference. We're looking forward to playing his teams."

One of Nugent's big 1958 victories in a 7-3 season was over Tennessee, and Jim McDonald, line coach of the Volunteers, said, "Nugent is a clever coach. He developed a tricky offense in that 'I' formation, and really moved that Florida State team. I wish him the best."

One of Nugent's Florida State assistants, offense line coach Bob Harrison, said, "We were all hoping Tom would get the job. We know he loved it at Florida State, but this is a wonderful chance for him."

Earl Scarborough, backfield coach at archrival University of Florida, said, "This comes as a great break for Maryland. I'm very surprised, but it's the best of breaks for Tommy, and I'm sure he'll make the most of it."

like they would do it. They were really great weren't they? Were you there?"

Polk suffered a heart attack a few weeks ago. His assistant, Roy G. Skinner, has piloted the Commodores through the season, which was a so-so 5-5 until Tuesday, January 15, 7:30 p. m., at the Wilson Hardware Company.

Yankees Win Comeback Of Year Honors

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

The comeback of the year in 1958 was made by the New York Yankees on the green turf of Milwaukee's County Stadium where they won the World Series.

Trailing 3-1 after the fourth game, the Yanks scrambled back to win the fifth in New York and swept the last two in Milwaukee. Only the 1925 Pittsburgh Pirates ever had done this in the long history of best-of-seven World Series.

The nation's sports writers and sportscasters gave the Yanks a sizeable margin over the Pittsburgh Pirates in The Associated Press' annual year-end poll. The Louisiana State University football team was a distant third, closely pressed by Boston's Pete Runnels, who almost won the American League batting title, and Robin Roberts, who regained his pitching touch at Philadelphia.

Of the 207 writers participating in the poll, 65 put the Yanks first, 23 had them second and 20 more rated them third. The total of 253 points on a 3-2-1 basis compared to Pittsburgh's total of 159 points, including 31 firsts.

Milwaukee's 1957 Series triumph and the Yanks' woeful performance in the first four games of the '58 Series set up the comeback situation.

The job that earned Pittsburgh enough points to finish second was the Pirates' cellar-to-second rise in the National League under Manager Danny Mortlaugh.

LSU drew recognition as a comeback team, as well as the team of the year, because the 1957 football team had managed only a 3-5 season while the 1958 version was the No. 1 team in the nation. LSU ended its regular season with a 10-0 record and added a Sugar Bowl victory over Clemson. A total of 18 first place votes and 79 points went to LSU.

Runnels, traded to Boston by Washington last winter, finished second to teammate Ted Williams in the batting race, a fine comeback for a 30-year-old handymen. Runnels drew 12 firsts and 68 points. Roberts recovered his pitching skill for a 17-14 record with the Phils, winning seven firsts and 50 points.

Mountaineer Loses First

Southern High turned giant-killer last night as the Highlanders ended the six-game unbeaten string of Mountaineer High with a 57-47 victory on the Oakland floor. The triumph was the fourth in six attempts for Southern.

The Garrett County cagers pulled away in the second period and 20-16 after being deadlocked, 10-10, in the first heat. The invaders couldn't catch up, trailing by 30-26 at the third quarter.

Terry Colaw was high for the winners with 14 points while Harold Carlson and Leo Martin shared 20 markers. Dick Uchic, Mountaineer forward, wound up with 11 tallies.

Brennan told newsmen in Cincinnati he would be "glad to talk with FSU officials, as well as anyone else."

Strazier said he hated to lose Nugent, but said FSU could not match Maryland's reported offer of $15,000 yearly, plus a residence and automobile. Nugent was paid $13,000 a year here and was up for a $1,000 raise when he quit.

Shepherdstown Rallies To Win

Held to 37 points for three quarters, Shepherdstown High staged a blistering 30-point rally in the last stanza to come from behind and whip Berkeley Springs, 67-58, last night on the losers' hardwoods. The setback was the fifth straight for the Indians.

"Ace" Derr was the big gun in the Rams' attack with a dozen goals and a 12-for-12 performance at the free-throw line for 36 markers. Ken Kerns had 17 tallies for Berkeley.

Former Marine Named New York Boxing Chief

NEW YORK (UPI)—Maj. Gen. Melvin L. Krulwich, a former fighting Marine, will have command of the fight game in New York state for the next four years.

General Krulwich, who fought in three wars with the U.S. Marine Corps, was appointed chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission Tuesday night by Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

The new chairman, a New York attorney and major general in the Marine Reserve, succeeds Julius Delfand of Brooklyn, who broke up the powerful Boxing Managers' Guild and tried zealously to clean up the sport during his four-year term.

Petersburg, falling behind, 13-9, in the first quarter, failed to catch Green Bank High's hoopers last night in dropping a 52-47 decision on the Vikings' hardwoods. The loss was the sixth in eight starts for coach "Honey" Crites' cagers.

Vance, Sheets and Phillips shared 33 of the winners' total while Ernie Nelson scored 16 and Dave Kozmtz 14 for the Vikings.

Another chapter of his career will come to a close in a few weeks when he reaches the age of 65 and retires as an executive of the Joseph Horne Company in Pittsburgh. Ted Kluszewski, baseball's "Mr. Muscles," will play for the Pirate basketball team in a 15-minute exhibition Saturday night, January 17, at the Pitt Field House in a game for the benefit of Pittsburgh's Children's Hospital. Although Kluszewski, in the neighborhood of 230 pounds, he won't be the heaviest man on the floor. Captain George Tarasovic of the Steelers weighs 255 and Willie McClung of the Cleveland Browns, tips the scales at 270. Other Pirates on the floor that night will be Dick Croal, Ron Kline, Frank Thomas, Bob Friend and Roy Face, plus ex-Pirates Jerry Lynch, Bobby DeGrego, Paul Smith and Bob Purkey. On the Steeler team will be Jack Butler, Len Dawson, Leo Elter, Jack McClairan, Ray Mathews, John Nisby, John Roger, Richie McCabe, Fran Rogel, Ted Marchibroda, Earl Morrall, Tarasovic and McClung. Pete Charuhas, Washington College athlete, spent most of the Christmas holidays here carrying mail. Then after the rush was over and Pete had a chance to enjoy a few days he became ill. The former Allegany High football star was slated to return to college Sunday but wound up instead in Memorial Hospital where his condition is listed as "good."

Ailment Puts Olmedo Out Of Tourney

PERTH, Australia (AP)—Alex Olmedo, who won back the Davis Cup for the United States last week, suffered a badly sprained stomach muscle in the Western Australian Tennis Championships today. He may be forced to withdraw from both the singles and doubles.

Olmedo disclosed the injury after he had advanced to the semifinals by beating Rod Laver, top-seeded Australian, 6-2, 6-3, 4-6, 3-6, 6-3.

"It happened in the first set when I reached for a ball," Alex said. "I will talk it over with Mr. Jones (Perry Jones, captain of the U. S. Davis Cup team) and see whether I can play in the rest of the tournament."

Olmedo and Barry MacKay are scheduled to play Sweden's Ulf Schmidt and Jan Lindqvist in the doubles semifinals Thursday. Olmedo's next singles match is scheduled against Andres Gimeno of Spain on Friday.

Olmedo's victory over Laver gave the American Davis Cup squad three players in the semis. Earlier MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, and Earl Buchholz of St. Louis had reached the round of four.

MacKay crushed Ulf Schmidt of Sweden 6-2, 6-4, 6-2 and Buchholz whipped Spain's Luis Arilla 7-5, 6-4, 4-7, 7-5.

Olmedo, a Peruvian from Southern California, had to stage a great finish to beat Laver. He is apparently wearing and suffering from emotional strain, he relaxed after winning the first two sets easily.

Andres Gimeno of Spain also gained the semifinals by beating Tony Ryan, Australia, 6-2, 6-4, 7-5. He is Olmedo's next opponent.

Beall Hoopsters Win Over Grads

The Mounties had trailed, 24-23, at intermission but put on a strong third-quarter spurt to overtake the Grads, 37-29, and were never headed.

Jim Evans and Jim Hansel sparked the Beall offense with 15 and 13 points while Finn caged 12 for the Alumni.

Valley Stays Unbeaten, Rolls Over Stags, 87-62

Despite a 39-point performance by forward Gerald Milavec, Elk Garden's cagers proved no match for the undefeated Valley High quintet as the Black Knights put on their best offensive show of the season in posting an 87-62 triumph on the Stags' court.

The Black Knights, who tangle with Fort Hill here this Friday to open the WMI League campaign, had five cagers reach double figures with George Lauer stuffing in 26 tallies.

Valley, hitting for 37 goals, added 13 of 17 free throws while Elk Garden had 23 buckets and 16 of 22 penalty piches. The Stags trailed, 25-18, 52-30 and 70-42 at the quarter marks.

Milavec, raising his season total to 180 points in seven games, solved the Valley defense for 13 goals and came through with 13 of 16 shots from the foul line. He is averaging 25.7 points a game.

Lauer got his production on 11 buckets and four penalty piches in as many tries. The veteran hooper boosted his totals for seven lifts to 137 tallies for an average output of 19.5.

Aiding the Valley cause were "Tippy" Melts with 17 markers, while Jim Chappell came up with 13 points and "Hank" Winner chipped in with 10.

The loss was the seventh without a victory for the Stags.

League Presidency Cronin's Decision

CHICAGO (UPI)—It appeared it was up to Joe Cronin today to decide whether he wants to be president of the American League.

Retiring President Will Harridge said Tuesday the 52-year-old general manager of the Boston Red Sox is the only candidate invited to appear in Chicago Jan. 14 before a screening committee charged with picking Harridge's successor.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What would you do if your husband bought food like he was feeding a family of 12 and couldn't get to a grocery store for a year? That's my Gus. I'm a wreck from shifting canned goods, sacks of flour and cases of detergent around. He hunts up bargains in the newspapers and runs to food sales and fills up the car. My cellar and cupboards are so crammed full we could feed an army and there's just the two of us and we never entertain. We live one block from a Supermarket. I think he's crazy. This has been going on for years. I bought a freezer but it only made matters worse because now he's got that filled with frozen foods. What's ailing him, anyhow?

ANXIOUS TO HEAR
DEAR ABBY: A physician friend would probably call this a "compulsion to hoard." Your husband really should stop and see a doctor on his way home from the store sometime.

DEAR ABBY: I am a woman in my thirties who, about six months ago, decided to have plastic surgery on a nose that was so big it gave me a complex. It was a very successful operation, but my problem is this. When I see friends I haven't seen in a long while and they say, "You look simply wonderful but there is something different about you and I can't figure out what it is," should I tell them or not?

DEAR ABBY: My fiancée is stationed in Germany and will be there for two years. Before he left we became engaged in the Church and he gave me a beautiful diamond. My fiancée says it is okay for me to go out on dates with other boys while he's gone to take my mind off my loneliness. My parents say that no engaged daughter of theirs is going out on dates. Don't you think that if my FIANCEE doesn't mind, my parents have no say in the matter? I am almost 18.

LONESOME
DEAR LONESOME: I agree with your parents. It was generous of your fiancée to give his approval, but since you accepted his diamond, you should decline his offer to date others. You made your choice.

DEAR ABBY: There is this girl at school who I am sure is a very nice girl underneath it all, but if I told anybody that I liked her, they wouldn't associate with me any more. She wears so much makeup that you would think she was made up to go on a stage. Her hair is up and she boasts that she has 101 bobby pins in it. One of the teachers made her wash her face once, but the next day she had the make-up on as thick as always and said that was the style and the teacher was square. Do you know of any way I could help this girl without insulting her?

CAROLYN
DEAR CAROLYN: The girl you describe is not likely to accept criticism from anyone who is merely a nodding acquaintance. If you are sincere about "helping her" gain her confidence by offering your friendship first. Then move in with the helpful suggestions.

CONFIDENTIALITY TO THE MAX
The difference between a successful marriage and a mediocre one consists of leaving about 3 or 4 things a day unsaid.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Hampshire Grand Jury Files 12 Indictments

The Hampshire County grand jury in a one-day session yesterday returned 12 indictments against 12 persons.

DEAR ABBY: What would you do if your husband bought food like he was feeding a family of 12 and couldn't get to a grocery store for a year? That's my Gus. I'm a wreck from shifting canned goods, sacks of flour and cases of detergent around. He hunts up bargains in the newspapers and runs to food sales and fills up the car. My cellar and cupboards are so crammed full we could feed an army and there's just the two of us and we never entertain. We live one block from a Supermarket. I think he's crazy. This has been going on for years. I bought a freezer but it only made matters worse because now he's got that filled with frozen foods. What's ailing him, anyhow?

ANXIOUS TO HEAR
DEAR ABBY: A physician friend would probably call this a "compulsion to hoard." Your husband really should stop and see a doctor on his way home from the store sometime.

DEAR ABBY: I am a woman in my thirties who, about six months ago, decided to have plastic surgery on a nose that was so big it gave me a complex. It was a very successful operation, but my problem is this. When I see friends I haven't seen in a long while and they say, "You look simply wonderful but there is something different about you and I can't figure out what it is," should I tell them or not?

DEAR ABBY: My fiancée is stationed in Germany and will be there for two years. Before he left we became engaged in the Church and he gave me a beautiful diamond. My fiancée says it is okay for me to go out on dates with other boys while he's gone to take my mind off my loneliness. My parents say that no engaged daughter of theirs is going out on dates. Don't you think that if my FIANCEE doesn't mind, my parents have no say in the matter? I am almost 18.

LONESOME
DEAR LONESOME: I agree with your parents. It was generous of your fiancée to give his approval, but since you accepted his diamond, you should decline his offer to date others. You made your choice.

DEAR ABBY: There is this girl at school who I am sure is a very nice girl underneath it all, but if I told anybody that I liked her, they wouldn't associate with me any more. She wears so much makeup that you would think she was made up to go on a stage. Her hair is up and she boasts that she has 101 bobby pins in it. One of the teachers made her wash her face once, but the next day she had the make-up on as thick as always and said that was the style and the teacher was square. Do you know of any way I could help this girl without insulting her?

CAROLYN
DEAR CAROLYN: The girl you describe is not likely to accept criticism from anyone who is merely a nodding acquaintance. If you are sincere about "helping her" gain her confidence by offering your friendship first. Then move in with the helpful suggestions.

CONFIDENTIALITY TO THE MAX
The difference between a successful marriage and a mediocre one consists of leaving about 3 or 4 things a day unsaid.

Jacoby On Bridge

Leads Seldom Harm JTB Play

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

The Jacoby transfer bid can be used with a good hand if you wish. North holds a six-card heart suit headed by the king and four points on the side and wants to be in game opposite an opening no-trump.

Of course, his seven high card points don't guarantee that game will make but he wants to be there and also much prefers to have his partner be the declarer.

A spade or diamond lead through his partner might cost a trick but such a lead through his worthless doubletons can't hurt anything.

Actually, the JTB is a must the way the cards lie. If North plays four hearts East will open a spade and North will wind up down one. If North plays three no-trump West will open a diamond and almost surely set the hand while the double dummy combination of a club opening and jack of diamonds return will set him two tricks.

With South declarer at four hearts all is sunshine. West can open a club or an old shoe but there will be no way for the defense to keep South from getting a spade discard on his own fourth club and making his contract.

Q—The bidding has been:

North East South West

1.N.T. Pass ?

You, South, hold:

AKJ76 V A J 8 3 4 2 4 8 7 6 5

You are playing the Jacoby transfer bid. What do you do?

A—Bid two clubs. This is the Stayman convention and is part of the JTB. It asks your partner to bid two diamonds unless he can bid two of a four-card major suit.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner bids two spades to show a four-card spade suit. What do you do now?

Russia, Indonesia Sign Trade Pact

LONDON (UPI)—Russia and Indonesia signed an economic and trade agreement Sunday providing for Soviet aid in construction of iron and steel plants, a sulphur-phosphate factory and two mechanized rice plantations, Moscow Radio reported. Russia will supply equipment and technical assistance on credit, the broadcast said.

Pimples Blamed For Boy's Death

LONDON (UPI)—Fifteen-year-old schoolboy Roger Simper suffered the plague of adolescents everywhere—pimples on his face.

A coroner ruled Monday Roger committed suicide with gas after writing in his diary, "I cannot live any longer with spots... they are getting worse."

More gold was mined in North Carolina than in any other state in the Union prior to the California gold rush.

State Faces Suit From Ex-Convict

BALTIMORE (AP) — Maryland will be asked to pay $35,000 to a man who spent 24 years in prison for a crime he didn't commit.

William D. D'Onofrio was sentenced to 12 years in prison after being convicted of armed robbery in Baltimore County in June, 1936. He was freed last month.

Two other men were given long sentences for their part in the robbery of a gas station but D'Onofrio persisted he was innocent. Dec. 16 the Baltimore County Circuit Court ruled there had been a miscarriage of justice and ordered D'Onofrio freed.

Robert J. Romadka, an attorney who succeeded in getting D'Onofrio freed, said he will ask Gov.-elect Tawes to have $25,000 in compensation for D'Onofrio included in the budget that goes to the Legislature convening today.

That's because

Stainless Pazo combines the most effective ingredients known for piles. Thus works 3 ways at once: (1) stops pain, itching in minutes; (2) shrinks tissue swelling, congestion; (3) promotes healing of raw tissues. THOUSANDS more thrifty Cumberland families have opened savings accounts with us in the past twelve months...bringing savings which totalled more than $1,167,700.00 to us for protection. Additions to their accounts and to previously established accounts helped First Federal grow more than $2,468,000.00 the past year.

Our savers found it profitable to save with us, too. We paid them more than $452,500.00 in earnings in semi-annual distributions, June 30 and December 31.

We're proud of these achievements... anxious to provide the same efficient and helpful service for you. Won't you stop in and get better acquainted?
